1. At the request of Mr. Lay, Executive Secretary of the National Security Council, I called Mr. Vaughn, of the office of Vice President Barkley. Mr. Vaughn had inquired of Mr. Lay whether it would be possible for an Air Force private to be assigned to CIA for duty in order to continue his night school medical studies when his present unit is transferred out of Washington. I informed Mr. Vaughn that CIA did not utilize enlisted personnel other than at overseas stations, and therefore we could not be of any assistance in this matter.
